Life Reflections

A'Ryshanae San'Tiarre McTear, affectionately known as "Rae Rae or Strawberry," was born on June 24, 1996, to Cassandra McTear and Latrell "Tee" Wallace in Ocilla, Georgia. She graduated from Coffee High School in 2014. A'Ryshanae was a 2021 Honor graduate of Ycarte Health Care Center, LLC.'s phlebotomy and medical assistant program. At a young age, A'Ryshanae joined Hightower Memorial Temple, where she praise danced with Yadah and participated in the Angel Youth Choir. She also was active with Martin Luther King, Jr. activities every year.

A'Ryshanae "Ranae" was a loving daughter, sister, granddaughter, aunt, cousin, and friend. Ranae would light up any room that she entered. She was known for her sense of humor, being the hype person at gatherings, and her encouraging words. A'Ryshanae loved her family and aggravated them in a joking way.

Memories of A'Ryshanae will forever be cherished through her parents: Cassandra McTear and Latrell "Tee" Wallace, both of Douglas, Georgia; her siblings: Jordan Wallace, LaKyra McTear, Gabrielle Wallace, all of Douglas, Georgia, Jamey Wallace, Latrice Wallace, and Jamorries Everett all of West Palm Beach, Florida; loving grandmothers: Katie Curtis, and Rosetta Wallace; one nephew: Karson Fussell; one godsister: Karmyn Brewton; a special aunt: Tamilya McTear; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
