

We are all dealt the hand life give us, but we determine how we play. Sometimes we are good partners on this journey to help us along the way. "Let's do it then," Meat would say. Demetrius was a kind-hearted player who, at times, was misunderstood. "This is what I do" while having fun but, was always there to lend a helping hand. He enjoyed being a part of The Best Friend Spade Club, no matter what they set out to do; reneging wasn't how he handled friendship. Meat was really cool with you. What you saw is what you got; he didn't fake it just to be your friend. We may not have agreed with all his ways, but he stayed true to himself until the end. Family was very important to him, and he loved them a lot as he would often tell Owen and me, "Yall have tickled me a lot." Sunday evenings getting ready to go, he would say play me two more songs. Who they would say Tyrone Davis. "Aint nobody told me nothing" he would say even though he really forgot. "I got this" another saying not knowing listening to other was part of the family lot. Your team would be a good lunch when it came to the Brady Bunch. Demetrius will be greatly missed. Another piece of the family puzzle is gone. We will always carry you in our hearts, and our memories of Demetrius (Meat) will live on.

Acknowledgements

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless!
