

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly,

In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.

You did not go alone.

For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,

Your love is still our guide.

And although we cannot see you,

You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,

And nothing seems the same,

But as God calls us one by one,

The chain will link again.

Letters To Our Mama

Dear Mama,

We are so proud of you for fighting for us and even more proud that we got a chance to fight with you and for you. Through many sleepless nights and uncertain times- you've taken care of us. And all too soon, we had the pleasure of taking care of you. Though we will miss you, we are happy that you're resting. We hope that you know that your spirit lives in each of us. There is no one and I mean absolutely no one that could've done it better than you. Although you've always tried your best to prepare us for life, none of us could've prepared for this. You've taught us many things throughout the years, but most importantly you taught us the importance of sacrifice, what it means to love others, and to always take care of each other. You taught us the value of hard work and to always dream big. Each and every day we promise to celebrate you.

Love, Makayla

Dear Mama,

You gave us the world, you put it right at our feet. With you by our side, there was nothing we couldn't beat. You taught us so much, Like to never lose sight. Even when we feel helpless, You taught us to fight. Without you here, my worst nightmare came true. The day God called you home has been sad and blue, But no more suffering, no more pain. Today you are in a better place. Your life was not in vain. Although we cannot hold you anymore, Just know we'll carry on Everything you taught us, your legacy lives on. Until we see you again. I'll know this much is true. God gave us our greatest blessing, Our mama, you.

Love, Brittany

Dear Mama,

I love you and will miss you.

Love, Mario

Dear Mom,

I would like to thank you for allowing me to be loved by you. I'm grateful for the times we shared together. Thanks for all the compassion and love that you gave to me. I thank you for pushing me to be great. I love you and thanks for watching over Brittany and Jameer while I'm away. I love you and I got you.

Your Loving Son, Roderick Jameel Martin

Life Reflections

Corinthians 5:8 - "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord."

Irene London, age 56, loving mother of three and wife, passed away the morning of June 14, 2022, after developing complications in a long-term acute hospital in Macon, GA.

Irene was born on December 18, 1965, to Arzella and the late Robert Outlaw in Douglas, Georgia. Irene graduated in 1983 from Coffee High School and completed studies at Job Corp. In 1987, Irene and Alphonso London was united in holy matrimony. To this union, three children were born.

Irene, our mother, was one of the strongest, most intelligent, courageous, bravest, and kindest women ever to walk this earth, and our family was blessed to have her. She was a fiercely dedicated mom to all of her children, encouraging them to accomplish great things. Irene loved her family, in which she instilled the value of family in the people surrounding her. The hole left by her absence is impossible to fill.

Irene London was preceded in death by her father, Robert Outlaw, her brother, Andrew Outlaw, and her brothers-in-law: Issac Clemmons, Ernest Smith, and Larry Norwood.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her mother, Arzella Outlaw; her husband, Alphonso London; three children: Brittany (Roderick) Martin, Mario London, and NaKayla London; her grandson: Quadir; her dog, King; four sisters: Rosetta (Guindell) Brockington, Imogene Clemmons, Mattie Mae Smith, and Linda Sue (William) Fuller and a host of nieces and nephews.
