

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand when I heard Him call:

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way;

I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savoured much;

Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me;

God wanted me now, He set me free.

Life Reflections

Harvey Martin, Sr., was the son of the late Henry Martin Coates and the late Minnie Bell Martin. He was born on May 8, 1934 in Eastman, GA. He joined New Beulah Baptist Church at a young age. He learned many life lessons through schooling and work from a young age. On February 25, 1956, he married the late Alma Jean Ross, and to this union, seven children were born.

Harvey was an assertive man with a strong personality. He enjoyed playing baseball, hunting, watching the Young and the Restless and spending time with his nephews. He was not a man of many words, but his words were powerful and firm.

He took his flight to be with the Lord early Monday morning on July 18, 2022. He was proceeded in death by his siblings and his daughter, Willie Mae Martin.

He leaves to cherish his memories: five daughters, Macy Martin, Minister Eva J. (Clyde) Green, Annette Brantley, Sheila Martin, and Mary Martin, all of Coffee County; and one son, Harvey (Sharon) Martin, Jr. of Coffee County; twenty grandchildren, several great-grandchildren, a special friend, Cynthia Davis, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
