

Oh Yeah, I Forgot To Say Bye

Some was sleep, some was calling me wanting to meet some keep shaking your heads and saying My, My, My, My Lord Why? It's on me oh, yeah I forgot to say bye, just know I'm sorry I left some in tears, some are hurting and saying My, My, My but all I can say to yall is oh, yeah I'm sorry. I forgot to tell yall bye.

Cuzin,
Shaneka Bailey

Life Reflections

Mario Kendrell Smith was born on April 2, 1989, to Tracey Smith and Fedrick Sutton. He graduated from Coffee High School with honors. Mario, affectionately known as "Rio," left an unforgettable impression on everyone he met. His looks and style made a few people look crossed-eyed and smile. Mario was a people person. Everyone loved being around him as much as he loved being around his friends and family. Some of his hobbies were fishing and rapping. Mario recently recorded several songs in surrounding studios. He loved wearing his Dickies clothing.

He leaves to cherish his memories: two sons: Ja'tavious Paulk, and Ja'Quez Paulk; one daughter: Atari Smith; parents: Tracey Smith and Fredrick (Sabrina) Sutton; five sisters: Eboney Smith, Tempise Cruse, Chanquella Brown, Mia (Shamon) King, and Taliyah Sutton; three brothers: James Smith, Fredrick Sutton Jr. and Derick Sutton; male role model: Robert Brooks; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
