Obituary

Johnnie Lou Tucker was born in Douglas, GA, on January 29, 1955. The late Mr. John Williams and Mrs. Martha Louise Long welcomed her into the world.

She graduated from George Washington Carver High School in the Class of 1973 and started her education at South Georgia College in Coffee County as a nursing major. However, she found it challenging during clinical rounds being a phlebotomist and administering venipuncture. Shortly after, Johnnie began working in poultry for over twenty-five years. Johnnie accepted her gift as being an all-around cook, and she was considered one of the best cooks around.

Johnnie's love for her family and people was inevitable. She will always be remembered for being a loving and caring woman. Johnnie gave her life to Christ, loved the Lord, and prayed every morning. She showed genuine love for ALL and never met a stranger. Johnnie welcomed everyone with open arms and was there to help "everyone" without grumbling, hesitation, or malice.

On Sunday, September 18, 2022, the Lord called her home. She is preceded in death by her loving parents: Mrs. Martha Louise Long and Mr. John Williams; husband: Ambrose Connell Ellington; three sisters, Sandra Jackson, Debra Long, Cynthia Monroe, and one brother: Ronald Glover.

She leaves to cherish her memories: Her son, Antywino Ashford; Her daughter Meshendia (Steven) Wayne; Her sisters and brothers, Elnora Gordley, James Glover, Jacqueline (Nathaniel) Dunnom, Glenn (Marsha) Tucker, Elizabeth Williams, Krystal (Kenneth) Walker, and Barbara (Gary) Wayne; Her grandchildren Patrick (Kirah) Moore, Jasmine Wayne, Jaylyn Tucker, and Laqunceonna Hardridge, Zackery Ashford, Stephanie Wayne, and Steven Wayne; Her great-grandchildren Katlyn Moore, Kyree Lovet, and Donell Steven Wayne, Jr. Her Best Friends Tracie Wilson (44 Years), Alberta Gaskins, Betty Hall, and Faye De'Shazor, as well as a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and friends.
