

Psalm 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Life Reflections

Bernita Tyson Buchanan was born on July 14, 1949, to the late Cleveland (Mary Walthour) Tyson Sr. She was the second child to Cleveland and Mary. She was a joyous child and full of life. She was raised by her grandmother Clifford Walthour Jordan, after her mother's passing. She attended Coffee County School System, where she was a member of the track team and school band.

At the age of sixteen, she was employed at the plantation restaurant, where she learned to be a cook. Mrs. Buchanan was the head cook at the Red Lantern and Holiday Inn. She worked at Golden Poultry for several years until her retirement.

Mrs. Buchanan was a faithful and dedicated member of Mt. Sinai Freewill Baptist Church. She was the church's mother. She was active in church, including helping with the easter program and the youth in the community. She graduated from Y'Carte as a licensed Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA).

She was joined in holy matrimony to Rex Jewel Buchanan. Mrs. Buchanan was a loving wife and mother. She was there to help and support anyone in need.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Rex Buchanan; her son, Christopher L. Tyson; three sisters, Ruthie M. Harrison, Catherine Kirksey, and Sarah Peacock; and one brother, Richard Tyson Sr.

Mother Buchanan leaves to cherish her precious memories: her two devoted sons: Timothy Tyson and Sedric D. Tyson; daughter-in-law: Candice Tyson; two sisters: Katie Mizell, and Etwilla (George) Williams; one brother: Cleveland (Teresa) Tyson Jr; sisters-in-law: Linda (David) Arnold and Gwendolyn Reliford ;brother-in-law: Don (Daisy) Buchanan, and George Williams; special grandchildren: Alena Raven Tyson; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousin, and friends.
