

A Better Place

Why am I crying?
Why do I feel so alone?
You left me now
To find a far better home
It's a gentle journey....
A soft breeze on your sail,
To a place where fears and worries
No longer prevail
It's a warm island in the sun
Where we all someday hope to be
With the Lord whom we love
And with all of our family.
I beg the Lord each night in prayer
To take away my sorrow
I pray he'll hear my cries at night,
And help me through tomorrow.
I will always think of you,
As each day appears.
My sorrow will softly lessen,
And gone will be the tears
But my love will continue,
As each year goes by.
And I will wait for my calling
To once again be by your side.

Obituary

Connie Shields Garmon was born on August 15, 1956, to the late George Edward Shields and Beatrice Reed Shields. She graduated from Coffee High School. Mrs. Garmon was a hard and dedicated worker. She was employed at Holiday Inn, Douglas Foods, and Golden Poultry.

She was married to Mr. David Garmon for many years. She was a faithful and dedicated member of The Empowerment Center International Ministries under the leadership of Pastor Frank C. Bussey until her health began to fail.

She was preceded in death by her parents, George and Beatrice Shields; one brother: David J. Bell; three sisters: Mattie B. Clements, Gladys Howard, and Georgia Mae Williams.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: a loving and devoted friend: Clifford Bussey; one brother: Wayne (Rosetta) Shields; one step-daughter: Janice Stafford; one granddaughter: Jada Stanford; God-mother: Sister Betty Johnson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Lovingly Submitted
