

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say
I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
And each time you think of me
I know you'll miss me too
When tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless.

“For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever.” ~ Psalm 100:5

Dorothy Ann Williams was born on July 11, 1950 to the late Eddie Aaron Wilson and Mary Lizzie "Butler" Wilson.

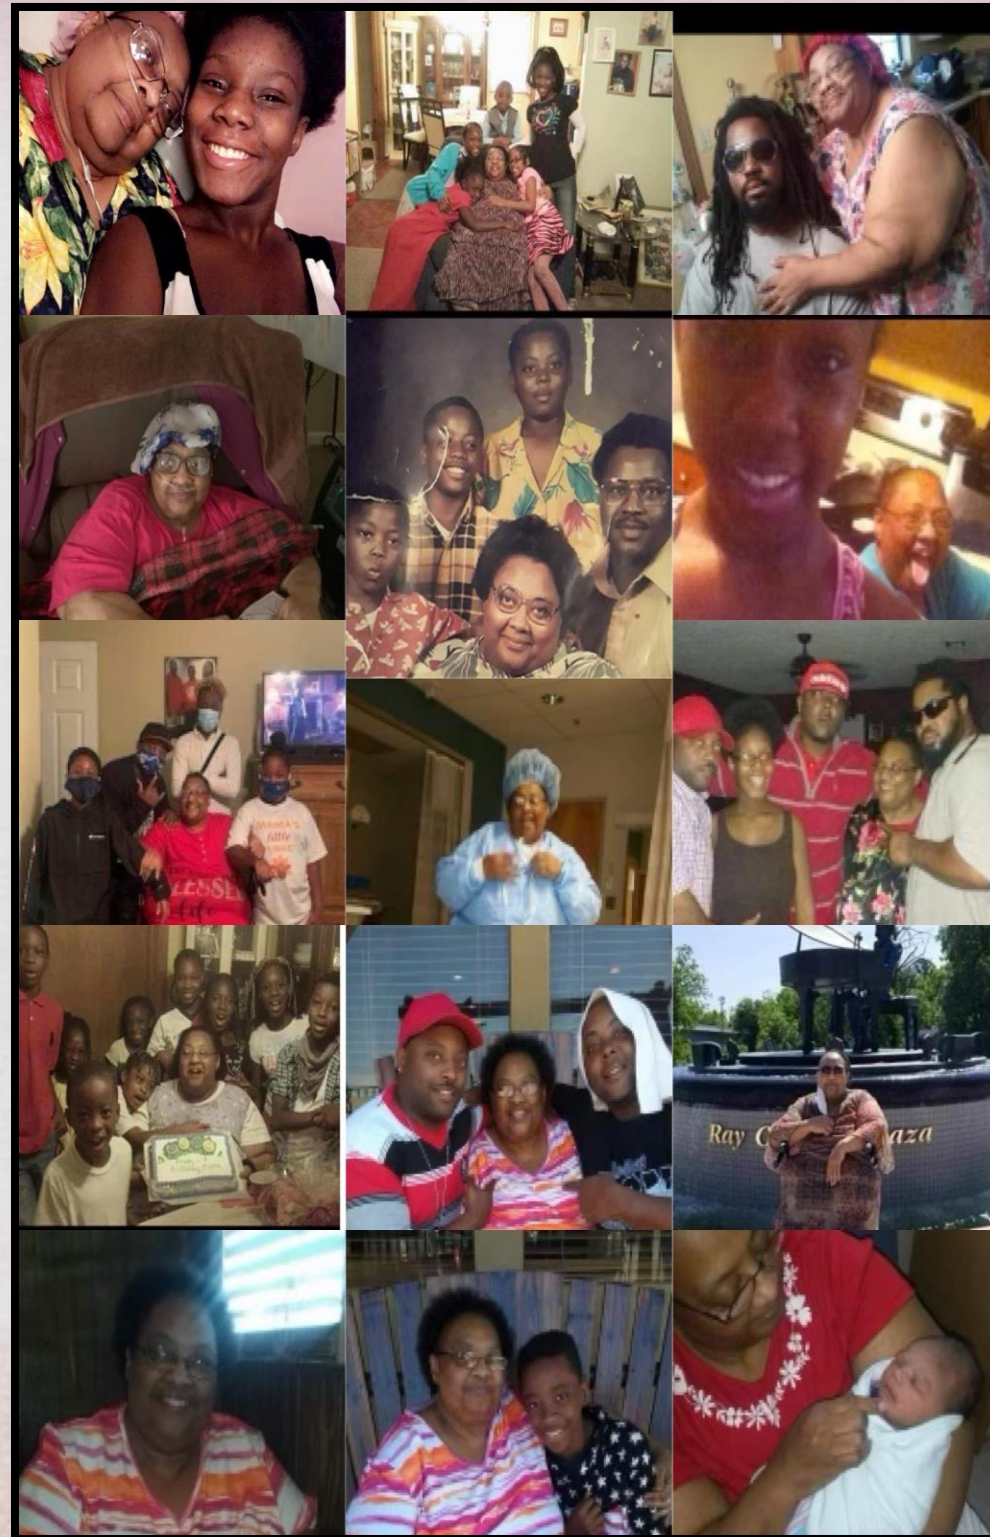

For most of her life she walked with God. She was married to the late Donnie Lee Williams until his passing. From this union, three sons were born. She moved from her childhood home in Pearson, Georgia, to live with an aunt and uncle in New York. While in New York, Dorothy worked as a social service employee. After returning to Pearson, Georgia, she worked in food service as a cook. Later in life, she became employed by Precious Possession until she retired.

During her life, she joined several church denominations until she joined the House of God Church of the Living God. She served the Lord in this church for twenty-six years. Dorothy became Tri. Deaconess and held this office for the last nineteen years of her life.

Deaconess Williams was a true servant of God. She perfected the scripture in Hebrew 13:2 because she brought strangers into her home. Many races and ethnicities were welcome in her home. She gave them a place to eat and sleep. Deaconess Williams clothed the naked, fed the hungry, and gave shelter to the homeless.

She is preceded in death by her late husband, Donnie Lee Williams; three brothers: Eddie Wilson Jr., Donald Wilson, and William Wilson.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: three sons: Donnie (Shera) Williams, Timothy E. Williams "Lady friend Lashonda Parker" and James T. (Latonya) Williams; two sisters: Shirley (Jimmy) Woodson and Peggy Palmer; three brothers: Thomas Williams, David E. Wilson, and Aaron Wilson; one aunt: Roxie Keita; one uncle: Harry (Jane) Butler; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and cherished friends.
