

Our Mama

As the four of us look back over the years we want to thank you for wiping away all our tears.

you were a good mother, waymaker & friend

Our love for you will never end

your love will always be our guide although we can't see you,

we know you will always be by our side.

We tried to hold on through undue grief

We love you & felt like your time here on earth was just too brief.

Now our family chain is broken, nothing will ever be the same

but as God calls us name by name

Our chain will link again

We Love You Mama.

When Tomorrow Starts

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see, If the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did that day, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say. I know how much ya'll love me as much as I love you and each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too. When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart for every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

Love,

Emma Y. Bailey

Obituary

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
 -2 Timothy 4:7-8

Emma Y. Bailey was born on October 7, 1965, to the late Alston Bailey Sr. & Emma Lou Bailey in Coffee County. She was preceded in death by a brother, Alston Bailey Jr. & two sisters Cleo Bailey and Rosa B. Anderson.

Emma was reared in Coffee County and educated in the public school at Coffee High. At an early age, she joined Pleasant Grove Baptist Church and attended faithfully until her health began to fail. She worked at Hardee's and Campbell Soup several years and later at Golden Poultry. She worked there until she became ill and could no longer work anymore. Despite her illness, she didn't let it define her character. She was still very joyous, funny, & outgoing, but most of all, she was always known for having the headline news. Today Emma's Life, Legacy & Laughter will always be headline in our lives.

Emma has fought the good fight, ran the race, and won the battle on October 21, 2020, at South Georgia Medical Center God knelt down and whispered, "Come Home" my child, no more pain, no more sickness. Obediently, she surrendered her soul; she's no longer dreaming the dream; she now lives the dream with her Heavenly Father.

She leaves to cherish her most precious memories; four children, Shaneka Bailey, Danquez Bailey, of Douglas GA, Rardrekus Bailey of Tifton GA, Sanchez Bailey of Miami FL., 19 Grandchildren, & 1 Great-Grandchild, Seven siblings, Barbara Gibson of Douglas, GA, Louise (Roy) Baker of Ocilla, GA, Patricia (Cato) Grady, Jessie (Jackie) Bailey, Vann Bailey, Jennifer (Cleveland) Brockington, and Greta (Bernard) Grady all of Douglas, GA; two Aunts, Susie Taylor of Douglas, GA and Nora Litman of Tifton, GA, A Loving and Devoted Friend Clinton Sparkman, A Special Caretaker Johnnie Mae Toombs and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
