

His Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away

His journey's just begun

Life holds so many facets

This earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting

From the sorrows and the tears

In a place of warmth and comfort

Where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing

That we could know today

How nothing but our sadness

Can really pass away.

And think of him as living

In the hearts of those he touched...

For noting love is ever lost

And he was loved so very much.

Life Reflections

A handsome king named Laheinus McCoggle, affectionately known as "Jr. Blue," was born April 22, 1968, to the late Leroy McCoggle and Marie Hicks in Douglas, Georgia.

Laheinus graduated from Coffee High School in 1986. After high school, he joined the United States Navy, where he served for four years.

Shortly after the military, Lahienus found his niche in entrepreneurship and successfully established multiple thriving businesses. Laheinus was a devoted husband, son, dad, brother, and friend. On July 20, 2018, Laheinus and Jercandiya united in Holy Matrimony. They shared four glorious years of marriage together.

He was preceded in death by his father, Leroy McCoggle, and his sister, Sharon Hicks.

Laheinus leaves to cherish his memories: a loving and devoted wife: Jercandiya McCoggle; two beautiful daughters: Malaysia McCoggle and Jamecea Robinson; a handsome son: Eric McCoggle; a loving mother: Marie Hicks; six loving siblings: Curtis (Laine) Hicks, Richard (Sabrina) Hicks, Tony Hicks, Yamada McNeair, Janice (Andre) Davis, and Milton Gainey; a special niece: Sheniya Gibson; a loving mother-in-law: Jacqueline Dromes; two loyal friends: Michael Clark Sr. and Kenneth "Bay" Johnson; a special son: Donterrious Armour: and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws, and friends whom he loved dearly.
