

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

- 1 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
- 2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
- 3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
- 4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
- 5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
- 6 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
- 7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
- 8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Life Reflections

Mother Mattie Moore Solomon was born March 22, 1927 in Kirkland, Georgia to the late Franklin Moore and Florence Moore. She was preceded in death by her children Charles Solomon, Timothy Solomon, Sollie Solomon, Jr., Martha Brantley, Francine Solomon; and grandchildren Sabrina L. Brockington, Katonya M. Powell, Nikki Y. Brantley.

Mother Mattie was a long time dedicated member of Broxton Deliverance Center where she faithfully served. She enjoyed singing in the choir and attending all church services. She was very instrumental in the Women's Ministry, and was a facilitator in the Annual Women's Convention.

Mother Mattie also loved attending the Annual Convention in Savannah, Georgia. During the pandemic you would often find her talking on the phone with Pastor George and Mother Maxine Wilkerson about the goodness of God. Also known as the neighborhood Mother, Mother Solomon was a woman full of faith and wisdom. She loved her family, church, and reading the Bible.

Mother Mattie early years of employment was Coffee Regional Hospital where she worked in the housekeeping department. She also worked at Swift & Company Poultry until her retirement. Just like at the church, she was a dedicated worker and was loved by ALL whom she came in contact with.

She was also a supporter of her community, local city officials, especially Ward 2. During election time she and her daughter could be found riding around town campaigning for their candidate. She will be sorely missed by her family and friends. Mother Solomon worked while it was day, now she can take her rest.

Mother Mattie was preceded in death by her siblings: Frank Moore, Jr., Fannie Goodman, Eunice Robinson, Pierce Moore, Sr., Hattie Lamb, Sadie Brooks, Richard Moore, and Leviticus Moore, Sr.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Delores Brockington of Miami, Florida; Gloria (Larry) McRae of Jacksonville, Florida; Sylvia (Henry) Williams of Douglas, Georgia; 21 grandchildren, 44 great grandchildren, and 13 great-great grandchildren & a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. God-children, Minister Brenda and Calvin Smith.

Precious Memories

We thought of you today.
 But that is nothing new.
 We thought about you yesterday.
 And days before that too.
 We think of you in silence.
 We often speak your name.
 Now all we have are memories.
 And your picture in a frame.
 Your memory is our keepsake.
 With which we'll never part.
 God has you in his keeping.
 We have you in our heart.
