

If Tears Could Build a Stairway

If tears could build a stairway

And memories a lane.

I would walk right up to heaven

And bring you back again.

No farewell words were spoken

No time to say "Goodbye."

You were gone before I knew it

And only God knows why.

My heart still aches with sadness

And secret tears still flow.

What it meant to lose you

No one will ever know.

But now I know you want me

To mourn for you no more;

To remember all the happy times

Life still has much in store.

Since you'll never be forgotten

I pledge to you today

A hallowed place within my heart

Is where you'll always stay.

We Love You Daddy

Life Reflections

We pause today to celebrate the life of Reginald “Rig” Grady. He was born on June 4, 1957, to the late Jeff “J.C.” Grady Sr. and the late Arletha Wilcox Grady.

Many years ago, he became a member of Gethsemane C.O.G.I.C. in Kansas City, Missouri, where he received his calling into ministry under the leadership of Pastor A.L. Scott.

He received his primary education from Coffee County School System, where he later became a Coffee High graduate in 1975.

He was preceded in death by his sister Dara Roundtree and a brother Andre Lollar.

Although Reginald was the quiet one, he loved spending time with his family and friends whom he loved dearly.
