

My Mom

I can't tell you Mommy
How many tears I've cried
Since the day you left
It seems so impossible
Although I know its true
I have so much around
That reminds me of you.

I still hear your laughter
And see your smiling face.
I would have gone crazy
If not for God's saving grace.

I close this letter now
But this is not goodbye
For you will forever be with me
In my heart and mind.

Acknowledgements

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless.

About Her

Mrs. Rose Marie Cox, lovingly known as Nana, was born on February 24, 1952 to Frank and Minnie Davis of Nicholls, Georgia.

Rose worked for many years at Coats and Clark until retirement. She was a faithful member at St James AME Church of Nicholls Ga before becoming ill. Her passion was cooking. Rose was well-known in her community for her delicious biscuits and cakes. She was also a cheerful giver and never turned people away when they needed her.

Rose transitioned on Thursday, December 22, 2022, at home in the care of her devoted family.

Rose was preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Minnie Davis; her husband, Harvey Cox; three sisters, Joyce Smith, Linda Davis, and Mary Ann Davis; and a loving companion, Terry Jones.

Rose leaves to cherish her precious memories: Two children: one daughter, Vernica (Willis) Crockett and one son, Franklin McNeair; one special daughter, Candice Tyson; one brother, Henry (Pat) Davis; one sister, Gloria Davis; seven grandchildren, Summer Crockett, Amelia Crockett, Yasmine Wilcox, Shard Harrison, Tavion Grady, Consuela Staten, and LaDarien Priester; two great-grandchildren, Bryson Crockett and Aiden Joiner; one uncle, Jay McDonald of Joliet IL; one aunt, Ida Conner of Joliet IL; two special great-nieces, Baley Davis and Paris Davis; three special nephews, Thomas Paulk, Sedric White, and Don Hill; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. A special thank you to her dedicated caregivers, Joyce Roe, Brenda Littleton, Frankie Lee Harrell, Denetrice Brown, Jean Coney, and Sheila McMillian.
