

Acknowledgements

We, the family of Mother Ruby Wilcox, wish to express our sincere gratitude to the many friends and family for all expressions of sympathy. Every act of kindness given through visits, cards, calls, flowers, food and especially your prayers during the homegoing of our beloved Ruby has made this process easier for our family. Your gracious acts of kindness have eased our sorrow and helped to get us through this time.

A special thank you to Bethany Hospice who provided services when needed. Thank you to Rebeccaa "Ms. Becky" for your support and concern for all our family. You have made the end easier for us to bear. We thank you again and we pray God's blessings be upon each of you.

Ruby was truly amazing Woman of God and she exemplified the definition of a strong mother and wife. Her absence will leave a tremendous void in our family. She will be loved and missed forever by all.

Life Reflections

Mrs. Rudine “Ruby Dean” Wilcox was born in Coffee County, GA, to Mrs. Dorothy Goddard Gaskin and the late Mr. Jacob “Buck” Gaskin. She attended school in the Atkinson County School System.

She was preceded in death by her son Jesse Lanier “Neil” Wilcox. Three brothers, Mr. Carlton Gaskin, Mr. Jacob Matthew Gaskin, and Mr. Joseph Dewayne Gaskin.

Ruby began her journey with Christ at St. John Baptist Church, where she served faithfully under the leadership of Pastor Reverend Edward Glover. She served very faithfully as church secretary for years. She loved the Lord, her church, and her pastor dearly.

She leaves to cherish her memory; Her loving husband of 52 years, Jesse James Wilcox of Willacoochee, GA; three daughters, Aviea “Dedtrick” Jackson and Amanda “Jimmy Dale” Baker of Willacoochee, GA, Sylvia Tomblin of Douglas, GA; three sisters, Andrea Perry, Brenda Speed and Gloria George; three brothers, Larry “Lillian” Gaskin, Robert Goddard and William Gaskin, Grandchildren, Shawn Wilcox, Colby Johnson, Victoria Wilcox, Latoya Wilcox, Candace Baker, Travis Dopson, Y’Darius Baker, Colton Lott, Jamiah Baker, Jordyn LaSage Baker, Great Grand Children, Shawntavia Wilcox, Destiny Wilcox, True Ruby Wilcox, Corinthius Wilcox Jr., Lagarien Lanier Jr., Azariah Vickers, A’nyes Stanley, A’Mariah “Lady” Cooper and Jayceon Baker, five sister in laws; Virginia Graham, Laverne Wilson, Doris Wilcox, Mae Emma Gowdy and Alice Coleman; six brothers in law, Johnny Wilcox, Arthur James Wilcox, Charlie “Rosa Lee” Wilcox, Robert “Jeanette” Wilcox, Michael Wilcox and Hosea Wilcox; one god daughter, Melody Wallace Smith, two special nephews, Roosevelt Gowdy and Michael Wilcox, Jr., a dear friend, Barbara Jean Wallace and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Ecclesiastes 3:1

There is a time for everything,

and a season for every activity under the heavens

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.
