Obituary

Samuel Preston Smith, affectionately known as "Smokey," was born to the late William Bill and Mabel Smith on March 6, 1946.

He graduated from Bacon County High School in 1965. Smokey was a great basketball player. During his young adulthood, he lived in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and Los Angeles, California. Samuel was a hard and dedicated worker. He worked on a construction site and poultry plant.

Smokey enjoyed laughing and reminiscing on life. He enjoyed watching sports and hanging around family and friends.

Smokey is preceded in death by five sisters: Molly Hall, Ollie Mae Robinson, Warnell Staten, Norma Jean Morgan, and Judy Tremble; four brothers: William Smith Jr., Wilbert Smith, Bobby Smith, and Rochester Smith.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: two brothers: Deacon Donald Smith of Alma, Georgia, and Larry Smith of Hollywood, Florida, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Lovingly Submitted
