PSALM 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We, the family, cannot adequately express our heartfelt gratitude for the many manifestations of love or concern extended during the demise of our loved one. We are grateful to all who made a special effort to lighten the burden through prayer, visitations, gifts of love, and helping hands. May God shower blessings upon you and your loved ones for all your acts of kindness.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Ulysses Colson was born on February 17, 1947, to the late Walter Colson and Earnestine Moore Colson in Pearson, Georgia. Ulysses received his formal education in the Atkinson County Public School system in Pearson, Georgia. Ulysses relocated to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1968. He secured Employment at the Budd company on Hunting Park Avenue, where he remained until retirement after 35 years of service.

While at the Budd Company, Ulysses was recognized as an ambitious employee that was willing to learn and advance. He attended many different training sessions and was eventually promoted to a supervisory position. Ulysses loved his work at the Budd Company, as well as the many friends he garnered while there.

On June 27, 1975, Ulysses was United in Holy matrimony to the love of his life Charlotte L Meriweather. To this union, they were blessed with two sons, Derrick Ulysses and Anthony Denair Colson. Ulysses was a loving husband and a great father. He was definitely a family man. He took joy and pride in raising his boys. He wanted to make sure they would grow up to be Men of honor. This is when he began sharing his wisdom and skills. He was a Stickler for good work. Whatever job you choose to do, it must be done well.

On December 3, 1978, Ulysses joined Shiloh Apostolic Temple under the leadership of the late Bishop Robert O. Doub. He was baptized in the Name of Jesus Christ, according to Acts 2:38, shortly after. Ulysses received the gift of the Holy Ghost and was ordained as a Deacon on May 7, 1983. Ulysses was a faithful and active member, also serving as an usher and the President Of the Brotherhood board. Many years later, Ulysses joined in fellowship with the Temple Of Christ under the leadership of Bishop Raymond S. Milburn. During his time there, he served as a Sunday school teacher.

Ulysses was fascinated with landscaping. His lawn had to be perfect at all times. He was so fascinated by it that after his retirement, he started his own landscaping business. The skill of landscaping and helping people brought him so much joy. Ulysses was a lifetime fan of fishing, bowling, playing chess, and barbecuing.

After a brief illness, he succumbed to the will of God. He quietly slipped away into eternal rest on Tuesday evening, January 18, 2022. Ulysses was preceded in death by his son, Derrick Colson, parents, Walter and Earnestine Colson, brothers Larry and Herman Colson, as well as sister Sherry Colson.

Ulysses leaves to cherish his loving memories, his lovely and devoted wife of forty-six years: Charlotte Colson; son: Anthony (Rashaana) Colson; three grandchildren: Deikeveonta Hall, Derrick C. Colson Jr., Derien Colson; four brothers: Walter Colson Jr, Jerry Colson, Willis (Cathy)Colson, Angelo (Sharon) Colson; two sisters: Shirley Colson, and Mary Lynn Favors; A host of in-laws, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
