

Don't grieve for me, from pain I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid, you see.
I took his hand when I heard his call
I turned around and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace on a sunny day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A family shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good family, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seem all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now; From pain I'm free.

Life Reflections

Vincent Kentron Williams was given to us on January 16th, 1989, as the son of Leroy Brown and Jennifer Debro in Douglas, Georgia. Affectionately known as “Levi,” Vincent enjoyed his life in Douglas, Georgia, where he attended Coffee County High School. Growing up, Vincent loved hanging with friends, listening to music, and caring for his siblings. Levi was a hard and dedicated employee of Spectrum for over ten years.

Vincent was a crucial part of his family. He was often the person who encouraged peace and cultivated fun. Regardless of trials and tribulations, he always focused on doing what was best for himself and his family. Vincent passed away on the morning of September 8th, 2022.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife Jessica; one son: Rajon Williams; three daughters: Zaria Williams, Katalina Williams, and Lindarose Williams; his parents: Jennifer Debro and Leroy Brown; six siblings: James (Cassandra Debro), Trovonte Debro, Amos (Charlesia), Janice Stanford, Bobby (Sierra) Stanford, and Jennifer Stanford; grandmother: Minnie Allen; great aunt: Betty Graves; two aunts: Darlene Debro and Barbara Ann Debro; four uncles: Leodis Mitchell, Freddie Debro, Vincent Traylor, and Al Allen; eighteen nieces and nephews and a host of beloved cousins.
