

Psalm 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Life Reflections

Mr. Walter James Street Jr. was born on December 6, 1949, to the late Mr. Walter James Street Sr. and the late Mrs. Louise Curtis Street of Douglas, Georgia. And to this union, they had three children, Rebecca Street Holloman, Walter James Street Jr., and Leila Mae Street Clemmons.

Walter received his education in Douglas, Georgia, at George Washington Carver High School, where he enjoyed playing football. Walter James drove trucks for Coca-Cola for several years before starting a career as an on-the-road truck driver. He had a love and passion for racing cars and motorcycles in his spare time. His legacy and love for racing will forever live n through his nephew John Holloman who also has a passion for racing.

Walter was preceded in death by his parents, Walter James Street Sr. and Louise Curtis Street; maternal grandparents, Melvin and Leila Jones Curtis; paternal grandparents, Oscar James and Rebecca Jackson Street; three sisters: Rebecca Street Holloman, Sara Street Phillips, and Pastor Delorris Street Horne.

He leaves to cherish his memories forever: one sister, Leila (Rev. Napoleon) Street Clemmons; two nephews: Apostle Leroy (Prophetess Mary) Street and John (Alisha) Holloman; three nieces: Angela Trippe, Sheila Clemmons, and Alicea Clemmons; a loving and dedicated significate other, Vonell Ryan; two special and loving godchildren: Tanisha Johnson and Jarvious Johnson; and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and friends.
