

Poem

I can hear the organ playing,
From where I tremble at my knees.
I heard a saint of Heaven praying,
For someone a lot like me.
And I was almost persuaded
That my time has come to be and prayed,
Lord, if they sang it one more time,
I will know that it is for me.
It might have been the choir singing
Though I don't know what I heard.
It might have been the preacher sermon,
Though I don't recall the word.
It must have been the Spirit leading,
That knew this heart of mine,
And knew just what I needed
'Cause they sang it one more time.
But it took one more hallelujah,
One more praise nis name.
It took one Mother's prayer to Heaven,
Lifting up my name.
It took one more verse of pass me not,
To reach this heart of mine.
Heaven must have heard me searching,
'Cause they sang it one more time.

NAILS HELD HIM THERE BUT LOVE MADE HIM STAY.
HE SUFFERED AGONY
MY DEBT OF SINS TO PAY
AND FOREVER I WILL BE WITH THE ONE WHO DIED FOR ME.
NAILS HELD HIM THERE BUT LOVE MADE HIM STAY.
HE YIELDED TO THE CROSS.
THE FATHER TO OBEY
BUT HE KNEW SWEET VICTORY WOULD BE HIS AT CALVARY.
NAILS HELD HIM THERE BUT LOVE MADE HIM STAY.

Life Reflections

Mr. Alvin Benjamin Brantley was born on July 24, 1950, to the late Allen Brantley and Ruthie Lee Benjamin. He graduated from Jeff Davis High School and furthered his education at Altmaha Technical College of Hazlehurst, Georgia, where he received an electrical degree.

He resided in Atlanta, Georgia, and Broxton, Georgia, for several years before returning to his hometown of Hazlehurst, Georgia. Mr. Brantley was a lifelong member of Bennett Tabernacle Holiness Church of Hazlehurst, GA, under the leadership of the late Bishop Fryer and Elder Eddie Harmon. He met and married Annie Lee Brantley on June 10, 2000.

He gained his wings on April 4, 2023 following a terminal illness. He was preceded in death by his father, Allen Brantley; his mother, Ruthie Lee Benjamin; and six in-laws.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife: Annie Lee Brantley, of Broxton, GA; ten children: Anthony Brantley of Hazlehurst, GA, Alvin (Valena) Butler of Albany, GA, Santonio Mondrey Brantley of Hazlehurst, GA, Rodney (Katrina) Robinson of Indianapolis, Indiana, Chris (Sydana) Wilcox of Atlanta, GA, Demario Brantley of Atlanta, GA, Tikia Brantley of Atlanta GA, Tracy (Ronald) Johnson of Norfolk, VA, Gwendolyn (Terrance) Height of Jacksonville, FI, and Lecarl Butler of Broxon, GA; twenty-three grandchildren; nineteen great-grandchildren; two sisters: Saleta Robinson of Hazlehurst, GA and Queen Brantley of Jacksonville, FL; five in-laws: Lula Bell (Robert) Powers, Ernest (Willa) Butler, Sadie Butler, James Butler and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
