

Come With Me

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be, so he put his arms around you and whispered, come with me. With tearful eyes we watched you decline and saw you fade away, Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stop beating, hardworking hands at rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

Obituary

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

- 1 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
- 2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

Mr. Oscar Brockington was born on July 30, 1942, to the late Jester Brockington and Lillie Mae Brockington.

Mr. Oscar passed away on February 28, 2023, at Coffee Regional Medical Center following an extended illness.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Jester Brockington and Lillie Mae Brockington; two brothers: Jester Brockington and John Brockington; one sister, Mary Lizzie.

Oscar leaves to cherish his memories: two daughters: Chera Bivens (Elo) of Albany, Georgia, and Jennifer Brockington of West Palm Beach, Florida; five grandchildren; two brothers: Isaac (Linda) Brockington Sr. and Freddie Lee (Shirley) Brockington Douglas, Georgia; two sisters: Annie Mae Brockington of Miami, Florida, and Annie Ruth of Jacksonville, Florida; a special niece, Donzella Stinson of Douglas, Georgia; a special nephew, Isaac Brockington Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Lovingly Submitted
