

In Loving Memory of

Poem

At times like these,
When we feel as though
A loved on is gone

Angels smile
Because another of us
Gets to put wings on

I'm sure God is at the gate to welcome his Queen home.

We should choose
To celebrate and refuse
To mourn her

Look up and be thankful,
There's another angel in our corner.

Life Reflections

Mrs. Bessie Williams Lott, lovingly known as “Granny,” was born in Notasulga, Alabama, to the late Clarence Williams and Ethel Anderson Williams. She completed her schooling in Montgomery, Alabama. She met and fell in love with Mr. Wilis Lott. They were united in Holy matrimony and raised their loving granddaughter Keitawna (Pumpkin) Carter.

Mrs. Lott attended Mt. Olive AME Church in Broxton, GA, where she was known for her beautiful style and dress, including her unique hat collection. After retiring from Gold Kist, she became a housewife and loved to travel and go fishing with her husband. She loved to keep her yard beautiful with multiple plants and flowers that she cared for at her home.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence and Ethel Williams, her late husband, Wilis Lott, and her siblings, Jessie Lewis, Oliver Williams, Mary Brown, and Wilbert Williams, and a special niece Diane Vickers.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: her caregiver and granddaughter: Keitawna (Pumpkin) Carter; her two children: Pastor Willie (Anastasia)Carter and Willene Carter; five grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and two special nieces: Stephanie Williams and Lou Pickett; a very best friend: Mrs. Hazel Brock and a host of other family and friends, including the Eady family.
