Psalm 23

- 1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
- 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
- 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
- 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
- 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgements

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless each of you!

Life Reflections

Today we celebrate the life of our beloved Johnny Lee Williams Jr. He was born on December 17, 1953, to the late Johnny Lee Williams and Mildred James in Douglas, Georgia. He was educated through the Coffee County school system. Shortly after high school, he relocated to Adel, Georgia, to help his mother. Later in life, he moved back to Douglas, Georgia.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Johnny Lee (Ethel) Williams and Mildred (Curtis) James, and one daughter, Brandy Williams.

He leaves to cherish his memories: one son: Antonio (Victoria) Williams; one daughter: Janet Coleman; seven grandchildren; eleven great-grandchildren; five brothers: John (Bennie) Williams, Tommie Berry, Ted Williams, Tony James, Elijah James, and Steve Moore; five sisters: Betty Jo Williams, Glenda (Donnell) Sirmans, Lavonne (Willie Frank) Coney, Natalie (Clyde) Gainey-English, and Judy (Joseph) Sanders; one godson: Kaleb Paulk; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
