

You're Not Truly Gone Papa

PaPa slipped away,

Quietly one day.

He simply went to sleep,

No more to wake or weep.

Now we gather here

And quietly shed a tear,

As we lay him in the ground,

No solace to be found.

But PaPa's not truly gone,

Because his memory lives on,

in all of us who loved him,

Never to be forgotten.

Life Reflections

Deacon Harry Ashland Anderson, affectionately known as "Chiller," was born on September 10, 1945, in Roanoke, Virginia, to the late Edith Butler. After graduating from high school, he went to Diesel Mechanic School. He worked as a truck driver for several years until he became a chef at Marriott Corporation. While at Marriott Corporation, he met and married his wife of thirty-two years, Rosie Anderson.

After they moved to Douglas, Georgia, in 1992, Harry started working at Golden Poultry. Deacon Harry Anderson was a faithful and dedicated member of Overcomers Tabernacle of Faith and Praise, where he taught Sunday School and served as an usher. Later in his life, he started attending New Beginning Church of God.

Deacon Harry Ashland Anderson returned to his heavenly home on July 15, 2023. He was preceded in death by his mother, Edith Butler.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife: Rosie Anderson, four children: Harry Ashland Anderson Jr., Michelle Anderson, Tamara (Clinton) Brockington, and Tiehera Brown; his devoted brother: Ronald Anderson; grandchildren: Jasmine, Nesha, Darren, Kemari, Taesha, Diaz, Latisha, and Jamiya; one great-grandchild: Jayce; special cousins: Carolyn Edmunds, and Jeanette Penn; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

Precious Memories

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

2 Timothy 4:7
