

Sister and Bestfriend

The moment I realized,
my sister just died.
My hands cradled my face,
and I frantically cried.

Why did this happen,
and how could this be.
She had so much to live for,
we could all clearly see.

My heart simply dropped,
and felt a sharp pain.
My tears fell instantly,
Like a severe August rain.

I was truly lucky,
to have a sister like her.
Countless others,
nod and concur.

I will miss our talks,
and her comforting voice.
And those random moments,
where we'd mutually rejoice.

Rest in peace,
Sister and best friend,
My deepest love,
to the sky I shall send

Life Reflections

"Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled"

The Lord has promised us peace. He is our strength and comforter, so cast all your cares on him. He is our present help in the times of trouble, trials, suffering and sorrow.

Wynter Harris was born to Frank and Shirley Harris on February 11, 1995, in Douglas, Georgia. She was educated through the Coffee County School System. After graduating from Coffee High School, Wynter accepted a job at DL and Sons in Alma, Georgia.

Wynter was loved and cherished by many people in her community and surrounding counties. She never met any strangers. Wynter was known as having an old soul. She gave her life to Christ at an early age. Wynter knew and loved the Lord. Her favorite song to sing was "Cooling Water."

She was preceded in death by her father, Frank Harris, and two brothers, Frank Harris Jr. and Franklin Harris.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: her fiancé of seven years, Robert Moore; her mother, Shirley Harris; two brothers, Recardo (Octavia) Harris and Antonio (Melissa) Harris; two sisters, Janice Harris and Latonya (Cedric) Robinson; two aunts: Norma Pruitt and Ethel Salter; three uncles: Willie Harris, Bobby Carter and Joseph Collins; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends,

Precious Memories

We thought of you today.
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday.
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories.
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
We have you in our heart.
