Obituary

Charles Michael Armstrong Sr., born on December 20, 1956, in McRae, Georgia, to the late Amos Armstrong and Spencer Ree Mayo, has departed from this world. He was a devoted and unwavering member of Jehovah's Witness, whose faith guided his life.

Charles was a beloved figure in his community, known for his kindness and compassion. He had a heart of gold that touched the lives of many. On this day, we come together to celebrate the life of a remarkable man, who now rests in eternal peace.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents, Amos Armstrong and Spencer Ree Mayo, and five siblings, Linda Armstrong, Janice Armstrong, Isaac Armstrong, Earl Armstrong, and Jeffrey Armstrong. Their memories live on in the hearts of those who loved them.

He is survived by his three children, Timothy Walton, Fatima Armstrong, and Charles Armstrong Jr., who were a source of immense pride and joy in his life. Charles also leaves behind two siblings, Nathan Armstrong and Gail Sanchez, as well as a multitude of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever hold his memory dear.
