

Order of Service

- Processional.....Ministers & Family
- Final Glimpse
- Invocation.....Reverend Edward Glover
- Solo.....Reverend Edward Glover
- Scripture Reading
 - Old Testament.....Appointee
 - New Testament.....Jonathan Glover
- Reflections.....Please Limit To Two Minutes
 - Anyone Desiring to Speak
- Solo.....Reverend Edward Glover
- Eulogy.....Pastor Frank C. Bussey
- Acknowledgements.....Harrell's Staff
- Committal Service
- Benediction

Obituary

Clifford Bussey, born on August 25, 1937, to the late Jack Bussey and Carolyn Carmichael Bussey, departed from this world, leaving behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. Clifford had a deep passion for working on farms and nurturing the growth of vegetables, a labor of love that defined his life until his health began to wane.

In the course of his life's journey, Clifford was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Jack and Carolyn Bussey, and three brothers, Jack Bussey Jr., Frank J. Bussey, and Fred Bussey. Their memories will forever hold a special place in the hearts of those who knew them.

Clifford's memory will live on through his ten children, each of whom he held dear: Cleveland Bussey, Nathaniel (Rosie) Bussey, Wayne (Fredricka) Bussey, Wanda Bussey, Clifton Bussey, Carlton (Vonda) Bussey, Donnie Bussey, Ronnie (Kimberly) Bussey, Juanita B. (Harlan) Deberry, and Sharon B. (Jonathan) Glover. His devotion to his family was unwavering and a source of strength for all.

Clifford is also survived by his five sisters, who will remember him fondly: Mary L. Vickers, Marilyn Bussey, Georgia Bussey, Geneva B. Evans, and Lisa B. Howell. Additionally, he is survived by two brothers, Pernel Bussey and Jimmy Bussey, who shared a special bond with him.

In addition to his immediate family, Clifford leaves behind a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who were touched by his warmth, kindness, and love.