

Dad

Dad We know you're gone to a much more pleasant and beautiful place and we know we will remember the smiles you had on your face.

We can honestly and truly say that we know "We have been blessed to have a Daddy, Granddaddy like you so pure, honest and true."

We have had a lot of good times throughout the years that is why today my eyes are filled with tears.

If is so hard to say Goodbye to someone we absolutely loved and adored, although we know you're not in pain anymore.

So, today we will leave you this poem sealed with hugs and kisses to let you know that you'll always be loved and greatly missed.

The Obituary

James Edwards Williams, born on July 21, 1950, to the late Bernice and Albert Williams in Tallahassee, Florida, bid farewell to this earthly realm on the morning of December 30, 2023.

He is now reunited in eternal peace with his beloved wife, Constance Zackery Williams, his two daughters, Michelle Williams Paulk and Sandra Jones, and his sisters, Lola Smith and Annie Joyce Williams, who preceded him in death.

James leaves behind a cherished legacy that will forever be held close to the hearts of those who knew him. He is survived by nine loving children: Tammy Williams, Shenethia Williams, Antonio Jones, Reginald (Patricia) Lane, Russell Bailey, Kwaski Williams, Michael (Latisha) Williams, Jermaine Hutto, and Ricky Williams; as well as twenty-seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. His memory lives on through his eight sisters: Sandra Smith, Shelia Wilson, Betty Williams, Mary Butler, Brenda (George) Sanders, Clementena (Carl) Bailey, Jennifer Williams, and Rena (Daniel) Littleton, and his three brothers: Namon Williams, Danny (Wanda) Williams, and Alvin Williams.

James also leaves behind a loving son-in-law, Michael Paulk Sr., and is fondly remembered by his three sisters-in-law: Beatrice McRae, Shelia Zackery, and Melissa Zackery; as well as his three brothers-in-law: Kenny Zackery, Barney Zackery, and Willie Zackery. Additionally, he is mourned by a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins, and sorrowing friends.

James Edwards Williams' presence in our lives will be dearly missed, but his memory will forever be a source of comfort and inspiration to all who had the privilege of knowing him. May he rest in eternal peace
