

Psalm 91

- 1 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
2 I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.
3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.
4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.
7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.
8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.
9 Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;
10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.
12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.
14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.
16 With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

His Story

We pause today to pay our respect to Mr. Mark Anthony Webb, son of the late Samuel Pace and Ruby Nell Jacquelyn McCloud. He was also the grandson of the late Elbert and Ruby Nell Atwater. His paternal grandparents are the late Shelley and Rosina Pace. Mark was born May 10, 1965, in Douglas, Georgia. He departed his life December 23, 2023.

Mark attended Coffee High school, and later joined the United States Air Force. He was also a member of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church during his youth. Mr. Mark was a God-fearing family man who also was respected in the community from coaching his two son's and providing mentorship amongst the youth. He believed in treating everyone with respect, working hard, and never complaining. The morals and values he instilled in his family to go after your dreams and never be afraid to be the best is something that will always be the pillars that will be the driving force to allow his family and those who had the pleasure of meeting him to carry on his legacy. Along with that, Mr. Mark enjoyed listening to the Coffee High Trojans on Friday nights and looked forward to the day they would bring home a state championship. He also loved the Georgia Bulldogs and talking to his youngest son about Marvel movies and different genres of music. Mr. Mark was a man of principal and would do anything he could for those in need. A friendly, loving and caring individual full of life that wanted nothing more than to see his family succeed while giving God the glory in everything he did.

He was preceded in death by one sister, Samantha Holley.

He leaves to cherish his memory: Wife, Cynthia Michelle Webb; Two Sons, Markus Jerrell (Shannon) Webb and Keenan Maurice (Vanna) Webb. Grandchildren: Shamiaha Webb, Chasmine Webb, Chassidy Webb, and Kavion Webb. Siblings: Kytosha Webb and Derrek McCloud. Two Sister-in-laws: Carol (Jimmy) Grady and Jennifer (JC) Boler. Two Brother-in-laws: Anthony Howard and Lewis Weldon Jr. Special nephew; Stacy Jerel Williams Jr. and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
