

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free

To following the path God made for me,

I took his hand when I heard Him call.

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,

To love, to laugh, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

For I found peace at the last, that day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembering joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with hearts of sorrow,

My wish for you is the hope of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I've savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed much too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wants me now and He set me free.

Obituary

Seldom has God given so much to many people through one woman.”

Our Heavenly Father saw fit to reward Mother Thelma London with wings on Sunday, December 17, 2023, in her 97th season. Her passing reminds us that death is sure, but life is uncertain. Mother Thelma London was born on July 18, 1926, to the late Mr. Barton and Julia Jones.

She worked for forty years as a food service worker at South Georgia College, now known as South Georgia State College. She was a faithful woman who loved the Lord, her family, her church, and her community.

She accepted Christ at an early age and continued her walk with Him as a faithful member for thirty years at Sears Street Church of God by Faith under the leadership of Ruling Elder H. N. Turner.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one son, Billy London, two stepsons, John Lee London, and Alphonso London, her siblings, and one grandson Travis London.

Mother London leaves to cherish her legacy of love and service, her grandkids, April Harris, Bruce Dennis, Leroy Street, Alphonso London, and Corey London, a special daughter, Yolanda Hicks, a daughter in-love, Carolyn London, and a host of many caring friends.
