LIFE REFLECTIONS

“I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth”. Psalm 121:1,2

Today, we pause to celebrate the life and legacy of the late Minister Willie James Pace. “James” as he was affectionately called was born April 27, 1945 in Broxton, Georgia to the late Mansfield Pace, Sr. and the late Willie Maud Moore Pace. He was the 3rd child of 7. One daughter, Angela Parker, preceded him in death. He attended the Kight’s Elementary School and Mary Hayes Elementary School in Coffee County, Broxton, Georgia. He also attended George Washington Carver High School, Douglas, Georgia. He never attended culinary school, but he could cook up a meal worth eating. He was a hard and swift worker. He was an avid gardener and loved seeing things grow. James loved people, always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need. He was a logger, and he shared the ownership of Pace logging Company. He employed several men around the Coffee County area.

At an early age he joined the Broxton Deliverance Center under the leadership of the late Apostle Charles Wilkerson, Sr. On several youth Sundays Apostle Wilkerson would have him read Malichi 3:8. Like Moses he couldn’t speak affluent which we called “tied tongue”.

The need to continue his spiritual growth he joined Vickers Temple Church of God in Christ under the leadership of the late Elder Julius Ingram. After the passing of Elder Julius Ingram, the church name changed to Vickers Temple House of God Saints in Christ with several Pastors namely Elder James Ingram and the late Elder John Gloster which during that time he was called into the ministry. After the passing of Elder Gloster, the current leader is National General Mother Clara Graham of The House of God Saints in Christ, Inc. and Pastor of Vickers Temple House of Prayer Ambrose, Georgia. He was a faithful member until his health began to fail. He loved quartet singing. Two of his favorite songs were “Have you tried Jesus” & “Low down Chariot”.

Minister Pace transitioned quietly early Wednesday morning January 31, 2024 at the Vista Nursing Facility in Douglas, Georgia.

He leaves to cherish his memories a loving and caring wife Mrs. Josephine Pace; Four daughters, Angel Renee Pace, Tiffany Nicole Pace, Lashell Pace, Shandra (Gregory) Grace; Three sons, Glenn Pace, Corey Jeffery, and Marcus Gordon; As a son, Bishop Vincent (Vicki) McElhaney; One brother, Mansfield Pace Jr.; Five sisters, Bobbie Pace, Dortha L. Johnson, Bernestine (Aldoshia) McDuffie; Rena M. Graves, and Wade L. Davis; A host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, step-daughters, step-sons and many sorrowing friends.
