

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me but let me go.

Obituary

Arthur Lee Curtis, born on November 11th, 1947, in Douglas, GA, was a beloved son, father, grandfather, and friend. On February 22nd, 2024, he peacefully transitioned from labor to reward, leaving behind a legacy of love and cherished memories.

Arthur was known for his unwavering dedication and many years of service as a driver for the Coffee County Head Start. His commitment to his community and the children he served was unmatched, leaving a lasting impact on all those he encountered.

In his leisure time, Arthur found solace in simple joys. He had a passion for working on cars, finding joy in the intricacies of engines and mechanics. He also found peace in the simplicity of nature, often spending his free moments cutting grass and tending to the earth.

Arthur was preceded in death by his parents, Agnes and Johnny Curtis Sr., as well as by his siblings: Joanna Curtis, Pamela Curtis, Gerladine Curtis, Albert Curtis, and Johnny Curtis Jr. Though they have passed on, their spirits live on in the hearts of those who loved them.

He is survived by his son, Alex Douglas, and stepdaughter, Doris Burch of Columbia, SC, whom he cherished deeply. Additionally, Arthur leaves behind a loving family including sisters Barbara (Milton) Mathis, Gevena (Greg) Manley, Linda Moffett, Ira Lee Robinson, and a special mention to Lashanda Williams, all of Douglas, GA. His brother, "Pop" (Katie) Curtis, and sister-in-law, Linda B. Curtis, also mourn his loss alongside countless nieces, nephews, and friends. Arthur's memory will be forever cherished by his granddaughter, Caneasus Mizell of South Carolina, as well as by his eight grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild. His love and guidance will continue to inspire and guide his family for generations to come.
