

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Life Reflections

Clarence Martin Frazier Sr., beloved husband, father, grandfather, and retired Master Sergeant of the United States Air Force, passed away peacefully on March 16, 2024, in Valdosta, Georgia. Born in Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, Clarence was the son of George Allen Frazier and Lorene White Frazier.

Clarence proudly served his country for over two decades in the United States Air Force, achieving the rank of Master Sergeant. His dedication and bravery were exemplified during his service in Vietnam. He enlisted in May 1969 and served with honor until his retirement in June 1991, leaving behind a legacy of commitment and valor.

On February 20, 1975, Clarence married the love of his life, Linda Joyce Frazier, in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Together, they shared a bond that lasted a lifetime and beyond. Linda remained his devoted partner until the end, providing unwavering love and support.

Clarence was a cherished father to his three children, Clarence Martin Frazier Jr., Cedric Myron Frazier, and Carla Verrine McRae Frazier. He was also a beloved father-in-law to Iesha Frazier, wife of Cedric. He also leaves to cherish his memories brother, William Allen Frazier, sister-in-law, Pamela Frazier. His dedication to his family was unwavering, and his love knew no bounds.

His memory will forever live on in the hearts of his six grandchildren, Ayana Jackson, Treyvon McDaniel, Ryan McDaniel, Cedric Frazier Jr., Christopher Gilmore, and Chantel Frazier. He was a pillar of strength and wisdom to each of them, leaving behind a legacy of love and inspiration.

Clarence will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him. His kindness, generosity, and unwavering faith touched the lives of many, leaving an indelible mark on the world. As we mourn his passing, let us also celebrate the remarkable life he lived and the countless lives he touched along the way.
