

Poem

Yes, it seems I'm gone too soon
But, remember this was never my room
I'm in a better place now you see
All thanks to God's Grace and Mercy
Remember a better place I've gained
Never have to face no more pain
Now I have a home on high
So I'll take my wings and fly
In Heaven never no more frowns
Thank God, I earned my starry crown.

Acknowledgements

We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our time of sorrow with prayers, words, thoughts, visits, and flowers. Words alone cannot express our gratitude. Keep us in your prayers and may God bless you all.

Obituary

Mother Linda Louis R. Jackson, born June 26, 1949, in Eatonton, Florida, to the late Moses and Sallie Mae Williams Roberson, peacefully transitioned to her heavenly home on March 5, 2024.

Known for her profound love for the Lord and her boundless compassion for others, Linda touched countless lives as a spiritual mother and friend to many. Her heart of gold and willingness to help those in need endeared her to all who knew her. Linda will be deeply missed for her love, care, and words of encouragement.

Mother Linda Jackson leaves to cherish her precious memories her sons, Moses Roberson of Douglas, Georgia, and Anthony Roberson of Florida, her daughter, Yvonne Roberson of Douglas, Georgia, along with her special friend, Wilbert Williams, and three close friends, Pastor Michelle Power, Wanda Twyne, and Betty Young. She also leaves behind a legacy of love and fond memories for her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, and numerous friends. Linda's spirit will forever live on in the hearts of those she touched.
