Obituary

Quanda Riles Standifer, born on June 15, 1985, in Naples, Florida, entered eternal rest, leaving behind a legacy of love and faith. She was a cherished daughter, wife, mother, sister, and friend whose presence illuminated the lives of all who knew her.

Quanda's unwavering faith was evident in every aspect of her life. As a faithful and dedicated member of the Move of God Deliverance Center under the guidance of Pastor Willie Carter, she exemplified the true essence of spirituality and devotion.

From a young age, Quanda embraced life with zest and enthusiasm. She was actively involved in various extracurricular activities, including cheerleading, praise dancing, Delta Teen, and summer daycare camp. Her vibrant spirit and dedication shone through in all her endeavors, leaving a lasting impression on those around her.

In 2016, Quanda exchanged vows in holy matrimony with Brandon Standifer, with whom she shared a bond of love and devotion that knew no bounds. Her love for her family was immeasurable, and she poured her heart into nurturing and caring for her loved ones.

Quanda leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories that will be forever treasured by her beloved husband, Brandon Standifer, and their children: TaGayla Riles, Isaiah Riles, Jeremiah Riles, Brandon J. Standifer, and Zion Standifer. She is also survived by her devoted mother, Gayla Taylor, along with her stepfather, Eddie Taylor, and father, Edward Riles, along with her stepmother, Patricia Riles. Her memory will be fondly remembered by her siblings, Edward I. Riles and Shatonia Riles, as well as by her grandparents, Annie Coleman and Howard Riles. She will forever hold a special place in the hearts of her niece, Ashantia Riles, and nephew, Sincere Jones, along with a multitude of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
