Obituary

On April 14, 2024, the world lost a true gem, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and enduring memories. Antonio Bernard Robertson, fondly known as "Shake" to those closest to him, entered this world on March 7, 1983, in Ashburn, Georgia, born to the late Geraldine Robertson and the late Howard Gaye. Raised in the nurturing embrace of his grandmother, the late Frankie Mae King, in Coffee County, Antonio's upbringing instilled in him values of resilience, kindness, and a zest for life. He received his education through the Coffee County School system, where he not only learned academics but also forged lasting friendships and touched countless lives with his warmth and compassion.

Throughout his journey, Shake faced life's challenges with unwavering positivity and an infectious smile that could brighten even the darkest of days. His boundless love for his family and friends knew no bounds, as he consistently showered them with affection and support. A master of good-natured banter, he found joy in playful exchanges with loved ones, always ensuring laughter filled the air.

Let's remember his love for food, especially for sneaking a taste of the forbidden food. Despite life's obstacles, he remained a dedicated and hardworking individual, serving as a shift manager at Taco Bell in Douglas, Georgia, where his commitment and work ethic left an indelible mark on all who crossed his path.

Antonio is preceded in death by his beloved parents, Geraldine Robertson and Howard Gaye, whose memory he cherished dearly. He leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories, forever etched in the hearts of those he held dear. His adoring daughters, Jayda and Tamara Robertson, were his pride and joy, while his presence will be deeply missed by his grandfather, Lonnie Johnson, sister Toya (Wayne) Paulk, favorite niece Chloe Paulk, nephews Quamarion Batts and Xavier Paulk, best friends, Todd Tucker and Brandy Hooper and a multitude of aunts, uncles, cousins, co-workers, and friends.
