

The Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says,

“Grieve not for me.”

Remember the best times, the laughter,
the song.

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I’m counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun
will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don’t worry about falls

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes we’re together again.

Acknowledgements

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy.

Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless.

About Her

Gwendolyn Holland, born December 31, 1961, in Pearson, Georgia, departed from this world, leaving behind a profound legacy of faith, love, and dedication. Graduating from Coffee High School and later pursuing a degree in Business Administration at East Central Tech, Gwendolyn embarked on a professional journey touching the lives of many at Campbell's Soup, Tecumseh, Wendy's, and Walmart.

A devout Christian, Gwendolyn found solace and purpose at Pine Street Church of God, now known as The Lighthouse COG, under the guidance of Bishop Alphonso Johnson and later Bishop Craig Johnson. For over three decades, she served as a pillar of strength, influencing countless individuals with her unwavering commitment, perseverance, and words of encouragement.

The news of her passing has left an indelible mark of sorrow on her family and a vast community network that held her dear.

Preceded in death by several siblings, Gwendolyn is survived by her loving son, Nattiel (Natasha) Carter, cherished sisters Annette (Baine) Brinson, Tammie (Roger) Oliver, Katherine (Richard) Hutchinson, devoted brother Billy (Katherine) Holland, caring aunts Mattie Vickers and Edith Manor, as well as four grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Among those who mourn her loss deeply are her special nieces Tanshineeka Holland, Jhaiquayvia Johnson, and Zaria Johnson, Godson, Devin Jakel Smith, along with her supportive church and work family. Though her physical presence is no longer with us, Gwendolyn's spirit lives on in the hearts of all who were touched by her kindness, compassion, and unwavering faith.

Precious Memories

Come With Me

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be, so he put his arms around you and whispered, come with me. With tearful eyes we watched you decline and saw you fade away, Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stop beating, hardworking hands at rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.
