

When I Am Gone

When I am gone, release me – let me go

I have so many things to see and do.

You must not tie yourself to me with tears

Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you love, you can only guess, how much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love each have shown,

but now it is time I travelled alone.

So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must,

then let your grief be comforted by trust

It is only for a while that we must part so bless those memories within your heart.

I will not be far away, for life goes on.

so if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near

And if you listen with your heart, you will hear

All of my love around you, soft and clear.

Then when you must come this way alone,

I will greet you with a smile and “Welcome Home”

His Story

Jammal "Tank" Ameche Harris, born May 10, 1986, in Douglas, Georgia, to the late Don Ameche Harris and Annie Flagg, passed away on April 15, 2024, at his home in Douglas, Georgia.

Jammal received his education in Douglas, Georgia, graduating from Coffee High School in 2005. Known for his devotion and care as a father, son, and brother, Jammal had a welcoming personality, easily connecting with others. He excelled as a star athlete for the Trojans during his time at Coffee High. After graduation, he pursued various jobs until 2016 when he relocated to Atlanta, Georgia, where he served as a manager at Krystal's in Lithonia until his health began to decline. In 2023, Jammal returned to Douglas, Georgia.

He was preceded in death by his father, Don Ameche Harris; two brothers, Tony A. Harris and Jerrod Nelson; five uncles: Charles Temple, Stanley Parker, Eddie Parker, Robert L. Jones, and Felton Schley; and six aunts: Millie Temple, Kay Parker, Dorothy Jeffrey, Mary Lee Ellis, Essie M. Fields, and Willie Pearl Hutchinson.

He is survived by his loving mother, Annie Flagg, residing in Douglas, Georgia, and leaves behind four children: Madison Jade McKinney, Major Xavier Harris, Melani Joy Harris, and Moiya Eva Harris, all residing in Atlanta, Georgia. Jammal cherished a special bond with his friend Beranne Lester of Atlanta, Georgia. Among his siblings are Cedric Flagg, Antaneyce Harrison, LaShanda Harris, Montez Harris, Crissy Hill, Seneca McRae, and Mia (Rahkeem) Paulk, all of whom mourn his loss deeply. Jammal's nephews and nieces include JaQuan Harrison, Terrez Brewton Jr., Juelz Brewton, Destiny Harris, Ashley Harris, LaShante Green, Jamecea Robinson, James Robinson, Joshua Harris, Camille Feltus, Mi'Anna Paulk, Zayden Paulk, and Isryeal Paulk. He is also survived by his aunts: Barbara Temple, Gail Parker, and Betty Faye Temple, all of Douglas, Georgia, as well as uncles: Anthony (Sabrina) Flagg of Douglas, Georgia, and Wiley (Mary) Schley of Broxton, Georgia. Shedrick Grady of Douglas, Georgia, was a devoted friend and brother to Jammal. Additionally, he is remembered dearly by a host of great nephews, great nieces, cousins, and friends.
