

We Will Miss You

As we sit here and think about why you are not near.
We look around wishing you were here.
We keep imagining you are still by our side, but Missing you is something we just can't hide.

When we think of you throughout each day
Wondering why we have to miss you in this way
When we begin to think of you each day and night
We will always remember how you told us to do what is right.
We will miss the way you made us feel and knowing what You taught us it was for real.

Mama, we are really going to miss you and sometimes feel so alone.
But, we thank God for taking you to your Heavenly home.

Acknowledgments

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless.

Life Reflections

Precious Memories

Order of Service

Today, we gather with hearts heavy yet filled with gratitude as we celebrate the extraordinary life of Elouise Grady King. Born on Friday, June 26, 1936, in Douglas, GA, to the late Arthur and Mattie Tucker Grady. Elouise graced this world with her presence until she peacefully transitioned to glory on Friday, March 29, 2024 (Good Friday). Elouise's journey was one of resilience, love, and unwavering faith.

Educated at George W. Carver Elementary and High School, she embodied the values of perseverance and kindness from an early age. Elouise's life truly began to flourish when she joined in holy matrimony with Raymond King Sr. on November 10, 1956. Together, they forged a path of love and commitment, blessing this world with four beautiful children and 58 years of cherished memories. Together, they nurtured a family filled with love, laughter, and cherished memories that spanned over five decades. As Elouise navigated through life's various paths, from her days as a poultry processor to her nurturing role as a daycare practitioner, and greeter at Walmart, and a crafty seamstress specializing in lace handkerchiefs. Elouise's passion for life shone brightly. But it was within the embrace of family, the joy of travel, the warmth of her kitchen, and being a faithful church member, her compassionate spirit touched countless lives.

As we celebrate Elouise's life, with tears in our eyes and love in our hearts, let us hold onto the memories of her laughter, her kindness, and her unwavering love.

Though she may be gone from our sight, her spirit will forever live on in the warmth of our hearts, a beacon of light guiding us through even the darkest of days. May we honor her memory by the lessons she imparted, embracing each other with the same warmth and compassion that she so generously shared with the world.

She is preceded in death by her loving husband Raymond King Sr., Father Authur Grady, Mother Mattie Tucker Grady one brother Elvin Grady, and one grandson Edwanne Sparkman.

She leaves to cherish her memories and four children.
