Acknowledgements

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless.

Bobbie Jean

Lide Reflections

Bobbie Jean Graham was born on May 15, 1958, to the late George Wesley Graham and Eloise Simpson Graham. As a child, she attended church services held at her mom's house under the leadership of Harvey Lee Simpson.

Bobbie Jean attended Carver High School and was known for her hard work and dedication. Throughout her life, she held jobs at McDonald's and Golden Poultry. She enjoyed spending time on the porch, talking with her loved ones, and creating cherished memories.

Bobbie Jean was preceded in death by her parents, George Wesley and Eloise Simpson Graham; three sisters, Daisy Brooks, Patricia Williams, and Mae Frances Powell; and four brothers, Henry Graham, Joel Williams, Minister Hurbert Graham, and Jay L. Graham.

She leaves to cherish her memory two daughters, Jeanette Graham and Geneva Graham; five brothers, Tommy Williams, Ceil (Ernestine) Graham, Bennie (Lettice) Graham, Buster Lee Graham, and Jimmy (Kerria) Graham; two sisters, LouAnn (Johnnie) Hardy and JoAnn Graham; four grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
