

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay. Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay. Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong. I want you to be happy and try to stay strong. Don't cry for me. It was just my time, but I'll see you someday on the other side. Don't cry for me. I am not alone. The angels are with me to welcome me home. Don't cry for me for I have no fear. All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears. Don't cry for me. This is not the end. I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.

Acknowledgements

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless. Special thanks to Amedisys Home Healthcare, Dr. Abigail Miller, Mrs. Becky Miller, Dr. H.P. Nair, CRMC ICU Department, Mt. Olive Baptist Church, and Mr. Stephen Jackson.

Life Reflections

Marian Williams was born on May 10, 1943, in Stockton, GA, to the late Elizabeth Hayes-Gray and Israel Gray. She passed away on May 1, 2024, at Coffee Regional Medical Center in Douglas, GA, after living a life of devotion, faith, and service. She fought the good fight, finished the race, and kept the faith.

She attended Lanier County School and went on to work at Coffee Regional Medical Center for over 50 years as a Certified Registered Central Service Technician before retiring. Marian was a committed member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Pearson, GA, under Pastor Virgil Scott's leadership, whom she loved dearly. She was deeply cherished by her church family. Her warm personality and kindness left a lasting impression on everyone she met.

Marian was passionate about cooking, especially baking cakes, and loved sharing her creations with others. She firmly believed that to receive blessings, one must first be a blessing to others.

Marian was predeceased by three sons: Johnny Gray, Gregory Williams, and Robert Williams; her parents, Elizabeth Hayes-Gray and Israel Gray; her grandmother, Susie Frazier; three sisters: Sallie Acree, Tereatha Moore, and Alberta Patterson; one brother, James Gray; one niece, Janice Price; two nephews, Burnock Gray and Eric Crews; and one uncle, William Frazier.

She leaves behind her children, whom she deeply loved: Betty (Ronnie) Mathis; Jacky (Simonya) Williams; Darrell (Crystal) Williams; Maquetta Williams, Joyce Lott, and Jacqueline Dromes. She is also survived by two sisters: Earline Taylor and Catherine Jackson; a special grandson, Danny Carter Jr.; and five God-sons: Tommy Bess, Ronald Shaw, Willie Lee Williams (Nephew), David Lee Favors, and Cornelius Rogers.

Additionally, she leaves four sisters-in-law: Nicie Williams, Betty Sue Williams, Addie B. Hall, and Evadell Taylor; two brothers-in-law: Larry Williams, and Howard Williams; as well as a large extended family of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
