

Special Poem

For years it was just you and me. From Florida to Georgia, we were inseparable. Two peas in a pod. Kita and Tonya. Wherever you went, I went. Life threw us so many curve balls. Which we always overcame. You always tried to protect me. Tried to keep me out of harms way. Always being the big sister.

Pulling up with all the tricks. Ready for whatever. That was you and I thank you for that. As we grew older. It was vice versa. Me always coming to your rescue. Something I'd do all over again if given the chance. We understood the assignment. We realized we were all each other had. And You couldn't break us apart. That was us! When you saw one, you saw the other. This is a different kind of hurt. How am I supposed to live without you. You always played a major role in my kids' lives. And I did as well to yours. They loved their Aunty "Hulla" and so did I. Bird and "Cowgirl" will always live on.

Acknowledgements

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our friends were there; with flowers and cards, words written and spoken, with smiling faces and hearts open. We sincerely appreciate the thoughtfulness of our family and friends for their many acts of kindness, remembering us in our hour of sorrow with many prayers, words, thoughts, deeds, and all expressions of sympathy. Keep us in your prayers as we will keep you in ours. God bless.

Life Reflections

Catonya Melissa Sutton, daughter of Elisha Sutton and the late Gwendolyn Bennett, was born on December 8, 1974, in Douglas, Georgia. She was preceded in death by her mother, Gwendolyn Bennett, and her brother, Lavar Bennett.

Catonya spent her childhood in Clermont, Florida, and later returned to Douglas, Georgia, as a teenager. She attended Coffee High School and shortly after obtained her GED. On October 16, 1998, she gave birth to her one and only child, Zayveonte Nikebian Jihlante Sutton, who brought immense joy into her life. Catonya was thrilled to become a mother and Zayveonte was her everything.

Known for her lively personality, Catonya always kept those around her laughing and was the life of the party. She was known for her trash-talking, card playing, hanging out with friends, and cooking for her family. Her Thanksgiving feasts were legendary and will be dearly missed. She expressed herself through her style, always making sure she was "camera ready," earning the affectionate nicknames "Hulla" and "2Piece."

She is survived by her loving father, Elisha (Cynthia) Sutton; her son, Zayveonte Sutton; her granddaughter, Nova Reign Sutton; two sisters, Nikita Bennett, and Makeasha (Larry) Thomas; three brothers, Elisha Hamer, Steven (Meka) Bennett, and Darnell Brown.

Catonya's special friend, Sheila Flowers, stood by her side, providing pure love and care during her time of need. She also shared a close bond with the father of her son, Herman Dwayne Sutton. Despite the rocky road they traveled, they overcame obstacles and became the best of friends. Herman is a wonderful father and grandfather who loved Catonya deeply.

Throughout her life, Catonya touched many hearts and formed lasting friendships with Kwaski Adams, Diane Pierce, Valerie Roe, Latorya (Coco) Hall, and Keisha Perry. She also had a special relationship with her great-nephew "Duke," who adored his Aunty "Hulla." Catonya Melissa Sutton will be profoundly missed by her nieces, nephews, cousins, loved ones, and friends. Her memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.
