Acknowledgements

The family of Charlena Walker wishes to express sincere gratitude for the many expressions of love extended during our bereavement. Even as we shed tears that seem unstoppable and we wade through this river of grief, we trust in God's merciful goodness. He will steady our endeavors and provide comfort and strength to make it through with loving friends like you. Thank you for every kind and gentle deed. We ask for your continued support and prayers. May God bless each of you richly.

New International Version

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Obituary

Sister Charlena Walker was born on May 22, 1960, in Douglas, Georgia, to the late Helen Scott Walker and the late Earnest Fred Walker. Charlena was raised and educated in the Coffee County School System before moving to Waycross, Georgia, where she became a devoted member of New Mount Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church.

Charlena carried the spirit of the Lord and embodied the fruits of the spirit in every facet of her life. Her favorite prayer, the “Serenity Prayer,” guided her steps as she lived with a profound love for God’s work and an unwavering dedication to serving others. Charlena’s servant heart always placed others before herself, and her joyful spirit and infectious smile could light up any room. She lived her life to the fullest, embracing every opportunity to bless those around her. In addition to her devotion to her faith, Charlena had a deep love for the Denver Broncos football team, which brought her much joy over the years. On October 1, 2024, Charlena’s earthly journey came to a close at the age of 64.

She is preceded in death by her beloved daughter Heather Michelle Duncan; four brothers: Thomas L. Walker, Samuel Walker, Earnest Fred Walker Jr., and Nathaniel Walker; and two sisters: Earnestine Walker Hill and Clara Walker Robinson.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories for her surviving daughter, Brandie Walker; three granddaughters, Ajoria Duncan, Taylor Duncan, and Joycelyn Duncan; one grandson, Phillip Finney; and four great-grandchildren: Bryson, Royce, Willow, and Oaklynn. She is also survived by her two beloved sisters, Sunny Joy Johnson (who was like a mother figure to her) of Savannah, Georgia, and Creasie Hodge of Douglas, Georgia. Additionally, Charlena is remembered fondly by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all of whom held a special place in her heart.
