Life Reflections

Glenn "Joe" Pope was born on February 27, 1952, to Fisher and Nadine Pope in Douglas, GA. After graduating from Carver High School in 1970, he enrolled in the United States Marine Corps and served his country for four years. Following his years of service, he returned to Douglas, GA, where he attended South Georgia College for two years. While there, he was an active member of several clubs and organizations, as well as the basketball team.

In 1984, he married his late wife, Sarah Louder, of Douglas, GA, and they had one child, Anthony. In 1986, Joe began working for the Walmart Distribution Center, where he continued to work until his retirement in 2012. Joe will be remembered for his charming personality, dedication to his friends and family, and his love for everything related to sports.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Nadine Pope, and his wife, Sarah Pope.

Joe is survived by his father, Fisher Pope; his children, Anthony Pope, Katrina Pope, Marcus Davis, and Santavious "Mantel" Hunt; his siblings, Clydene (Wilbur) Jordan, Waunell Pope, Lavouns Pope, and Terence (Pam) Pope; 11 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild.

He is also survived by special friends Jerome Loving, Larry McElhaney, Willis Crockett, Alfred Harrison, Henry Davis, Diskin Campbell, Ron Morris, Willeam Holliman, and Raven Jackson, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who loved him dearly.
