

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace bethine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary

Katie Mae Moore, affectionately known as "Shorty," was born on November 19, 1957, in Douglas, Georgia, to the late Hester and the late Mac Carter. She received her education through the Coffee County School System. Katie's passion was serving others, and she found great fulfillment in caring for the elderly, a calling she dedicated herself to throughout her career until her retirement.

Katie was a faithful member of St. James Baptist Church, where she served under the leadership of Pastor Tommy Jordan until her health began to decline. Her devotion to her faith, family, and community was an integral part of her life.

Katie was the beloved mother of two children and the sister of fourteen siblings. She passed away peacefully at her home on Monday, September 23, 2024. On that day, she heard the voice of Jesus calling her to rest, and she entered eternal peace.

She was preceded in death by seven brothers and five sisters. Katie leaves behind cherished memories and a legacy of love and service through her family. She is survived by her two devoted sons, Teron (Charmon) Ingram Sr. of Orlando, Florida, and Torie (Corinda) Carter of Evansville, Indiana; grandchildren, Teron Ingram Jr., Ashron Ingram, Khlesia Filmore, Avantae Ingram, Shuntovia Carter, LeSabre Carter, Christopher Wilson, and JaDore K.K. Carter; seven great-grandchildren; one brother, Curtis Carter; five sisters, Joyce Sheppard, Rhonda Eady, Virginia Walthour, Donna Carter, and Linda Davis; four sisters-in-law, Minnie Carter, Lula M. Carter, Mary Bell Carter, and Marie Carter; a special sibling, Wiley (Mary) Schley; one brother-in-law, Johnny Walthour; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

The family is saddened to lose a mother, sister, aunt and friend, but 2 Corinthians 5:8 reminds us in the fact that Kattie Mae is now "Absent from the body and present with the Lord." We are deeply grateful for the thoughtfulness of our family and friends, whose many acts of kindness prayers, comforting words, and heartfelt gestures helped carry us through our time of sorrow. Please continue to keep us in your prayers, as we will keep you in ours. God bless
