

The Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says,
“Grieve not for me.”

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I’m counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don’t worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we’re together again.

Lamentations 3:21-23

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.
22 It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.
23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

Life Reflections

Caroletha Chestnut Stewart Simpson, 69, peacefully transitioned into eternal life on Thursday, October 24, 2024, surrounded by her loving family. Born on May 1, 1955, in Coffee County, Georgia, Caroletha was the daughter of the late Joseph Howard Chestnut and late Mildred Collins.

Known for her warm spirit, she found joy in singing, cooking, and sharing precious moments with her family. Caroletha first married the late Elvis Stewart, Sr., and their union was blessed with three children: Simone, Elvis, Jr., and the late Malachi. Later in life, she married the late Willie Hubbard Simpson.

She was preceded in death by her son, parents, four brothers, and two grandchildren.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories as a devoted mother to Simone and Elvis, Jr., and a beloved grandmother to Aiyana and Raijxannax. Caroletha will be fondly remembered by her three sisters, Mary Jean (Nathaniel) Dennis, Karon Brendale (Calvin) Mills, and Sharon Trendale Chestnut; three brothers, Ruben Spratt (Mary) Collins, Larry (Tammy) Chestnut, and Aven Jacob Chestnut; a special daughter, Sonia Lewis Stewart; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, friends, and community members. Caroletha's kindness, strength, and dedication to family and friends will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.
