

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace bethine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Life Reflections

Reverend Flossie Mae Bailey Lott was born on October 1, 1932, to the late Carrie Davis Bailey and the late William "Sun" Bailey. She grew up in Mora, Georgia, where she attended school and began her spiritual journey as a member of St. Mary's Missionary Baptist Church. Later in life, she joined the House of God in Willacoochee, Georgia, under the leadership of Bishop Viola Jackson and Elder Luscious Myers, where her faith deepened and blossomed.

Flossie Mae was married to the late Shaver Lott for more than fifty years. Known for her dedication and strong work ethic, she was employed by Criders, Swift and Company, and Golden Poultry until her well-deserved retirement. Even into her 80s, she continued gathering and sharing canned vegetables, a testament to her love and generosity toward family and friends.

She was celebrated for her skills in baking, cooking, and her unmistakable sense of style, always gracing her community with fashionable hats and dresses. A proud member of the Willacoochee Senior Center, Flossie Mae spent her time sewing, quilting, and enjoying group trips, cherishing every moment.

As her health declined in 2020, she moved to Vista Park Nursing Facility, where she continued to be a light, engaging with staff and residents, singing, and faithfully reading her Bible. Thanks to her niece, Loretta, she was able to attend her beloved church services, which were a source of joy. She looked forward to weekly visits from her family, especially the children, and enjoyed her favorite meals from KFC.

She leaves to mourn her passing one brother-in-law, Bishop Gerald (Mary) Lott of Brunswick, Georgia; two sisters-in-law, First Lady Lonnie (Elder Luscious) Myers, and Velma Lott both of Willacoochee, Georgia; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and cherished friends.

Precious Memories

"Missed"

I will miss our weekly visits.
All the wise things she would say
Even the funny sayings on any given day.
Somethings I will pass on to others,
Somethings never to be reveal to another.

Love,
Sharlene Lott Ricks
