

Psalm 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.

He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.

So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace bethine'.

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,

For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Milton grew up in Atkinson County, where he attended public schools, later relocating to Coffee County. There, he formed lasting friendships and created countless memories. After a dedicated career in the poultry business, he retired, leaving a mark on all who knew him. Known for his energy and warmth, Milton loved to dress up, dance, and work. A creative spirit, he found joy in making things as a hobby and took great pleasure in cooking for his loved ones.

Milton’s memory will be forever treasured by his mother, Morty Bell-Thomas of Brunswick, Georgia; his sister, Margie Williams of Atlanta, Georgia; and his half-sister, Priscilla Stewart of Fitzgerald, Georgia. He leaves behind his three children: Alexis Strouse, Taquavious Strouse, and Milton Ates. He also leaves behind his niece and nephew, Montray Lott and Jarrett Williams of Homerville, Georgia, along with his great-nieces, Zikeria Lott and A’Marie Williams, and his great-nephew, Demonte Massey, all of Homerville. His legacy lives on in his grandchildren, Ny’Zuri Strouse and King Taquavious Strouse Jr.
