Life Reflections

Nathaniel Dennis Sr., born June 16, 1959, in Douglas, Georgia, to the late Samuel Dennis and Lois Givens Dennis, passed away leaving a legacy of love, dedication, and generosity. A devoted father and grandfather, Nathaniel was known for his hard work and unwavering commitment to his family, friends, and community.

He attended school in Coffee County and later joined the United States Army. Nathaniel worked for the City of Douglas, where his commitment and strong work ethic were recognized by all who knew him. As a devoted and active member of Tabernacle Church of Deliverance, under the leadership of Apostle Harvey Simpson, Nathaniel was a man of unwavering faith who lived a purposeful and generous life.

He met and married the love of his life, Mary Jean Chestnut, with whom he shared forty-two cherished years of marriage. Together, they built a beautiful family, raising eight children and creating a home filled with love, laughter, and enduring memories. Nathaniel's generous heart was evident in his willingness to help anyone in need, often giving selflessly to support others.

Nathaniel is preceded in death by his parents, Samuel and Lois Dennis; one son, Sakinly Dash Dennis; one sister, Betty Dennis; and two brothers, Jerry Dennis and Dwight R. Dennis.
