

I'm Free

I Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow:

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Life Reflections

Travis Barnard Smith was born on October 1, 1982, to the late Calvin B. Smith and Joyce L. Smith of Nicholls, Georgia. Travis was well-known in his community for his beautiful smile, kind heart, sharp sense of humor, impeccable style, and his determined, go-getter spirit.

On November 13, 2024, Travis departed his earthly home to be with the Lord. He was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Calvin B. Smith and Joyce L. Smith; his sister, Jacquelyn Smith; his brother, Gary W. Smith; his grandparents, Frank and Minnie Davis; and his aunts, Linda Davis and Rose Cox.

Travis leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories for those who survive him. He is lovingly remembered by his devoted companion, Jammie Harper; his brothers, Kunta K. Smith, Calvin L. Smith, Anthony Whitfield, Brian (Ginger) Smith, and John (Daria) Smith; and his sisters, Willia (Gregory) Bryant, Veronica Andrews, Phyllis Smith, Paula Smith, and Tara Cooper.

He is also fondly remembered by his special aunt, Gloria Davis, and his uncle, Henry (Patricia) Davis. Travis will forever hold a special place in the hearts of his beloved niece, Kennedy Smith, and nephew, Zae Oneal.

He is further survived by his great-uncle, Willie Jay McDonald, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will miss him deeply.
